SHORT STATURE. STRONG STRAW. CONSISTENT YIELD

AC™ Prairie Sapphire offers a desirable combination of improved agronomic traits, and performs well in all flax production areas including irrigation and northern adapted zones.

FEATURES

- Improved threshing
- Improved yield potential over CDC Bethune
- Less straw, 1" shorter than CDC Bethune
- Excellent in field results under irrigation

BREEDER: DR. SCOTT DUGUID, AAFC MORDEN
PARENTAGE: FP1096/FP2030

AC™ Prairie Sapphire offers a desirable combination of improved agronomic traits, and performs well in all flax production areas including irrigation and northern adapted zones.